ROAD REPORT

Keith Crum reported that:

- The work on the Hemlock culvert box will be on October 16th. He has the box and will be buying the pipe.
- He used a borrowed brushhog and mowed all of the shoulders again in less than twelve hours. He suggested that we may want to get one of these mowers for ourselves.
- He has put gabion rock at the pipe near Keiter's. The pipe is starting to rust out. He talked to Tim and Bob about grading to keep water from washing across the road. If we can keep the water on the south side, it might all go through the pipe.
- The Phase 2 Hemlock Dirt & Gravel project has been put out for bid. We will send out a letter to residents on the road before the project begins.

- Keith got a thank you note from the Zimmerman family for helping with parking access for their public sale.

OLD BUSINESS

- There is no update from Ed Fisher about our stop sign project.
- The tree ordinance is still on hold.

NEW BUSINESS

- Alan Loesch made a motion for Jefferson to partner with Wayne Township's clean-up day, seconded by Dennis Morgan. All in favor. Motion carried 3-0.

PUBLIC COMMENT – NONE.

ADJOURNMENT – Alan Loesch motioned to adjourn the meeting, seconded by Dennis Morgan. All were in favor and the meeting adjourned at 8:13 P.M.
