ROAD REPORT

Keith Crum reported that:

- The plows and spreaders are on the 550 and the GMC.
- The tractor hydraulic fuel was low and both hydraulic hoses on the 550 have been replaced.
- He ordered a spotlight
- The International is at A&L for inspection. They will check to see if the clutch pedal can be loosened. He also asked them to evaluate the truck to see if it is worthy of a bed replacement. A&L recommended sanding and painting the hubs to keep them from sticking.
- New signs were put up on White Oak road.
- The new culvert box on Hemlock Rd. is working. It handled the recent two inch storm. He plans on putting four more boxes in.
- A load of salt was delivered, and another load is ordered. Antiskid was also delivered.

OLD BUSINESS

- Six Jefferson citizens took advantage of the joint Wayne/Jefferson Township clean-up day. Keith and Emily Zimmerman worked the event.
- There is no update from Ed Fisher about our stop sign project.
- The County is not going to be giving grants toward internet cable buildout. They are going out for cost estimates from other vendor technologies.
