ROAD REPORT Keith Crum Reported:

- He had blown off Hemlock Rd before the 2A was put down.
- Plows and spreaders are off the trucks, except the International.
- The GMC is in for brake repair.
- He met with Ed Fisher to look at the area on the Back Rd. that needed gabion rock.
- Blew out all the culverts on Carsonville Rd.
- Greased the 1066 to get ready for mowing.
- Finished the work for the Hemlock Phase 2 project.

OLD BUSINESS

- Hemlock Phase 2 project is done. The next step will be to review all the paperwork with Hooper from DCCD.
- A paver wasn't specified in the Phase 2 bid. It is not as smooth as Phase 1 segment of the road, but it will all get covered with DSA during the next phase.
- There was a general discussion about the proposed stop signs.

- No update on the County work on the Carsonville Rd. bridge.
- The Township is now registered with the State and has an agreement filed for the West Cross Rd Bridge.
- May 15th is Wayne Township's clean-up day. Jefferson will not be participating. Keith will talk Wayne Township to see if they want to still accept and individually charge Jefferson residents to drop off items.

NEW BUSINESS

- The Township was asked about advertising private yard sales. The Township will only advertise community events.

PUBLIC COMMENT – NONE.

ADJOURNMENT – Alan Loesch motioned to adjourn the meeting, seconded by Keith Crum. All were in favor and the meeting adjourned at 8:40.P.M.
